Mr. Salzberg,

I am responding to your Right-to-Know request of October 22, 2019 which seeks: "Any and all records from January 1, 2019, to the date this request is processed, concerning election complaints forwarded to the county from the Pennsylvania Department of State. A spreadsheet obtained via a previous request to the department showed that in 2019, 1 election complaint was submitted to Lehigh County, labeled "poll worker violations." Responsive documents would include investigations into these complaints and the findings of the elections division."

Your request has been forwarded to the Lehigh County Office of Voter Registration for review pursuant to and in accordance with Sections 102, 708, and 902(a) (1), (2), (4) and (7) of the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law and as well as on how long it will take to produce the requested material in the event it is a public record and not subject to one of the enumerated exceptions set forth in the Right-to-Know Law.

A 30-day extension is necessary in order to respond. A written response will be provided that will approve or deny your request or you will be permitted to view the requested materials on or before November 28, 2019. Should you have questions in the interim, do not hesitate to call me at 610-782-3678.

Sincerely,

Valerie Hildebeitel
Open Records Officer
